

HOTSPOTS

#DOWNTOWNHOTSPOTS

No one wants to be a lost tourist, right? We all want to find the best-hidden gems when visiting a new place. In our mission to offer our guests the very best of Stockholm, we teamed up with some cool, in-the-know Stockholmers to create a digital insider's city guide, that we hope will contribute to a fun and different visit to our capital. Now, with a little help from the locals, you can discover Stockholm from a unique perspective, and really get the most out of your visit.

EXPLORE SPOTS

1. Stadsbiblioteket (The Public Library)

Sveavägen 73, Vasastan

"Get lost in an abundance of books"

2. Nationalmuseum (The National Gallery)

Södra Blasieholmshamnen 2, City Centre

"Pop in the door and gasp at the Carl Larsson murals"

3. ArkDes

Exercisplan 4, Skeppsholmen

"An architecture and design freak's wet dream"

4. Lärkstaden

Östermalmsgatan 20 (with surroundings), Östermalm

"An all-brick time capsule from the start of the 1900s"

5. Sandhamn

Stockholm Archipelago

"Outer hotspot / meeting place for sailors and yachters"

6. Riddarholmen

City Centre

"Pretty, urban islet with a - yikes - haunted church"

7. Spöklottet with gardens

Drottninggatan 116, Norrmalm

"Another haunted house / art gallery well worth the visit"

8. Fotografiska

Stadsgårdshamnen 22, Södermalm

"One of the best museums for photography in the world"

9. Ivar Los Park

Bastugatan 26, Södermalm

"Small park / picnic spot with amazing views"

10. The Djurgården Canal

Djurgårdsbron (start), Östermalm

"Perfect for a scenic stroll in the fancy parts of Stockholm"

11. Skogskyrkogården (The Woodland Cemetery)

Sockenvägen, Enskede, Stockholm South

"Navigate between Avicii and Garbo on this huge graveyard"

12. Tyresta National Park

Haninge and Tyresö, Stockholm South

"Explore the largest old-growth forest south of Dalälven"

13. Hagaparken

Solna, Stockholm North

"An 18th century Swedish take on the English garden"

14. Skeppsholmen

City Centre

"Probably the best 'promenade' in Stockholm"

15. Fjäderholmarna

Lidingö Municipality, Stockholm

"Archipelago vibes just 18 mins by boat from the city"

